

Jerry Foster, Art

Mr. Foster is an award winning artist and photographer that has been teaching art for the past 16 years. His students have won regional, state, national and international awards.

Presently he has students in art schools and universities nationwide on scholarships. He is the instructor of art and animation at Florence high school where he is beginning his ninth year.